

Turkmenbashi International Airport announces tender

۱۸,۲,۲۰۲۳

Turkmenbashi International Airport of the Türkmenhowaýollary announces an open tender for the provision of necessary goods and services

Provision of services:

Carry out comprehensive repair work on drip irrigation systems installed on land plots allocated for landscaping at Turkmenbashi International Airport.

Purchase of polyethylene pipes with a diameter of 16mm for drip irrigation systems.

To participate in the tender, interested parties must provide the following documents:

submit an application for participation in the tender indicating the full name of the applicant for participation, his experience in this field, legal status and details, as well as attach the applicant's constituent documents, a power of attorney and a copy of the passport, contact numbers of the applicant's representative;

information about the company's experience in providing similar services;

power of attorney of an authorized representative

after registration as a tender participant, pay the fee for participation in the tender in the amount of 500 manats according to the provided invoice free of charge.

Tender proposals are accepted at the specified address in the marketing and contracts department of the Turkmenabat International Airport within 1 (one) month from the date of publication of this announcement from 09:00 to 18:00 local time.

Phones for information:

(+993 243) 3-06-62

(+993 243) 3-00-01

Turkmenbashi, Balkan province